Three winners display baking talent in Miss Etta's Cookie Challenge

There were eleven entries in our first-time cookie contest at the annual picnic on October 21. In honor of longtime Camelot volunteer Etta Mauldin, we added this contest to memorialize her life. Appropriately, Etta's two daughters, Sammie Thomas and Lois Martin, served as contest judges. CNA thanks Sammie and Lois for joining in the fun.

LOIS, REBA AND SAMMIE

And the winners are:

TIFFANY, TOSHA AND REBA

Best Soft Cookie:

Pumpkin snickerdoodles baked by Tiffany LeMay

Best Crispy Cookie:

Oatmeal-cranberry cookies baked by Reba Collins

Best Overall Cookie:

Chocolate-caramel cookies baked by Tosha Longsworth-Tucker

Chili Cook-Off draws 15 entries

And the winners are:

Hottest Chili: Wayne & Dwayne Mallory

Best Specialty Chili (Gluten Free): Stefany Ruhl

Best Overall: Chris Ott

CHRIS, STEFANY AND DWAYNE

And many thanks to this year's chili judges Clayton Tanner, Janet Williams and GPD Officer Kelly Horton and to Rick Williams for organizing the contest.

So Much Picnic Fun for the Kids!
